

Berberis aristata DC

Collection Site: Jawali DOC: 09-07-2022 Collector Name: Naveen Gautam

Accession No. : CPUH 10518

Common/Local Name (s): Kashmalu, Kashmal, Kushmol, Daru Haldi, Darhald, Rasaont, Rasanjan.

Family: Berberidaceae.

Botanical Description:

Erect, spiny, deciduous shrub, woody plant with yellow to brown, furrowed and rough bark, three-branched thorn, leaves in tuft, green, simple, stalked, elliptical to ovate, sharp-toothed branched, yellow flower, fruits ovoid, greyish-white, acidic, succulent, single large seed, yellow to pink single seed.

Flowering/ Fruiting: May-June/August-September.

Part Used: Fruit, root bark (locally known as rasaont, wood).

Longitude: 76°50'31"E.

Latitude: 31°34'35"N.

Altitude: 1202m.

Fig. 4.17 Economic potential of Berberis aristata in comparison to conventional crops