

Broussonetia papyrifera (L.) vent

Collection Site: Kharwar

DOC: 25-05-2021

Collector: Naveen Gautam

Accession No. : CPUH 10523

Common/Local Name (s): Paper Mulberry, Jungle Toot, Japani Toot.

Family: Moraceae.

Botanical Description:

A deciduous, large tree, bark has strong fibres, leaves are variable in shape, ovate to heart-shaped, upper side rough, lightly hairy, toothed margin, deeply lobed, the inflorescence is a spherical cluster, fruits are red or orange, sweet, edible, and juicy.

Flowering/ Fruiting: May-June/July-August.

Part Used: Leaves, roots, fruits, seeds.

Cultivation: Wild.

Longitude 76°37'20"E.

Latitude: 31°37'04"N.

Altitude: 990m.

Fig. 4.22 Economic potential of Broussonetia papyrifera in comparison to conventional crops