

Fragaria ananassa L.

Collection Site: Pantera DOC: 10-10-2021 Collector Name: Naveen Gautam

Accession No. : CPUH 10555

Common/Local Name (s): Strawberry.

Family: Rosaceae

Botanical Description:

Perennial, evergreen, herbaceous shrub, rosette-forming, long, slender runners, dark green, oval, glossy, margin toothed, clusters, smooth, flowers are white, grow in exile of leaves, bell-shaped, fruit is broad, heart-shaped, bright red, aromatic, juicy, acidic in taste, seeds are yellow, many, embedded.

Flowering/ Fruiting: December-April.

Part Used: Whole plant.

Cultivation: Cultivated.

Longitude: 76°41'34"E.

Latitude: 31°37'57"N.

Altitude: 811m.

Fig. 4.51 Economic potential of Fragaria ananassa in comparison to conventional crops