

Kalanchoe pinnata (Lam.) Pers.

Collection Site: Kalol DOC: 17-04-2022 Collector Name: Naveen Gautam

Accession No. : CPUH 10564

Common/Local Name (s): Pathar Chat, Pashanbhed, Pathar Choor, Shilfadaa.

Family: Combretaceae.

Botanical Description:

Erect, perennial, succulent plant; leaves are opposite, thick, fleshy, margin toothed, green to yellowish, elliptical in shape, Inflorescence is terminal and paniculate; pedicels are slender with many pendent flowers; the corolla is tubular; the flowers are bloody in colour; the fruit are large and tubular; the fruit has four slender papery tubes; and the seeds are brownish and oblong.

Flowering/ Fruiting: May-September.

Cultivation: Wild.

Longitude: 76°36'25"E.

Latitude: 31°20'32"N.

Altitude: 629m.

Fig. 4.60 Economic potential of Kalanchoe pinnata in comparison to conventional crops