

Mangifera indica L.

Collection Site: Pandher    DOC: 05-05-2021    Collector Name: Naveen Gautam

Accession No. : CPUH 10561

Common/Local Name (s): Aam, Mango.

Family: Anacardiaceae.

Botanical Description:

Large, tall, perennial, highly branched tree, umbrella-shaped crown, bark is rough, dark brown, fissured, leaves are simple, alternate, green, but young leaves are reddish, oblong-lanceolate, leathery, prominent midrib, margin entire and wavy, aromatic, flowers are many, whitish-pinkish, fruit is irregularly shaped, fleshy drupe, outer skin is smooth, bear at proximal end, unripe is green and yellow-reddish when ripe, juicy, edible, seed is single, large with numerous hairs.

Flowering/ Fruiting: May-June/July-August.

Part Used: Bark, leaves, fruit, pulp and kernels.

Cultivation: Wild.

Longitude: 76°39'46"E.

Latitude: 31°39'34"N.

Altitude: 885m.

Fig. 4.64 Economic potential of Mangifera indica in comparison to conventional crops