

Moringa oleifera Lamk.

Collection Site: Badhani DOC: 06-07-2022 Collector Name : Naveen Gautam

Accession No. : CPUH 10573

Common/Local Name (s): Sehjan, Sunna, Sehjan, Drum Stick Tree.

Family: Moringaceae.

Botanical Description:

Evergreen, perennial, medium-size plant; bark whitish grey; wood soft with pungent taste; branches drooping and fragile; young shoots greenish-white; leaves are alternative; obovate-elliptical, compound, dark green, inflorescence long, fragrant, flowers fragrant, yellowish to white, pedicelate, fruit 3-valve capsule.

Flowering/ Fruiting: March - August.

Part Used: Leaves, stem, flower, seeds, stem bark, root bark.

Cultivation: Wild.

Longitude: 76°40'43"E.

Latitude: 31°14'50"N.

Altitude: 676m.

Fig. 4.68 Economic potential of Moringa oleifera in comparison to conventional crops