

Nyctanthes arbor-tritis L.

Collection Site: Badoh

DOC: 02-05-2021

Collector Name : Naveen Gautam

Accession No. : CPUH 10577

Common/Local Name (s): Harsingar, Parijat, Night Jasmine, Rat Ki Rani, Regmalpatta, Kuri. Shefali, Tree of Sadness.

Family: Oleaceae.

Botanical Description:

Small tree, bark rough, grey in colour, leaves are green, shiny, simple, opposite, acute-ovate, long, margin entire, short petiole, inflorescence long, slender peduncle, flowers white, tubular, pleasant smell, small, 4-5 in cluster, fruit is a long, round capsule, bilobed, heart-shaped, flat, brownish, single seed, seed is compressed.

Flowering/ Fruiting: July-October/Cold Season.

Part Used: Bark, leaves, flowers.

Cultivation: Wild.

Longitude: 76°31'17"E.

Latitude: 31°74'56"N.

Altitude: 1003m.

Fig. 4.72 Economic potential of Nyctanthes arbor-tritis in comparison to conventional crops