

Oxalis corniculata L.

Collection Site: Gobind Sagar Lake DOC: 08-08-2021 Collector Name : Naveen Gautam

Accession No. : CPUH 10582

Common/Local Name (s): Malori, Changeri, Indian Sorrel, Creeping Wood Sorrel.

Family: Oxalidaceae.

Botanical Description:

Annual herb, stem prostrate, roots arise from nodes, leaves are green, alternate, long petiole, trifoliate leaflets, flowers in a long peduncle, axillary, pale yellow in colour, fruits are a capsule, which is slender, elongated, brown to reddish, and a transverse ridge is present on it.

Flowering/ Fruiting: February-June/ July-September.

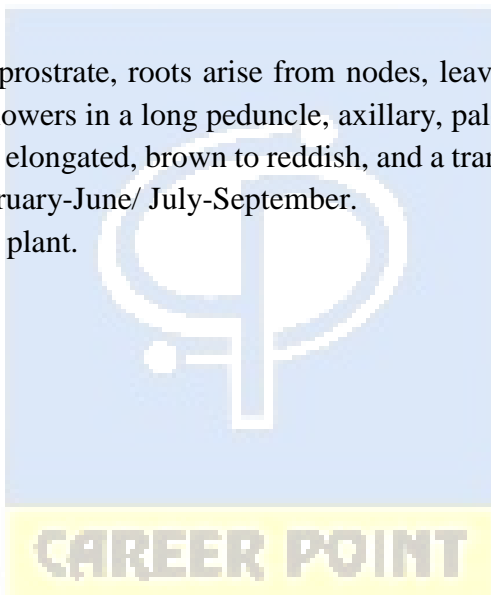

Part Used: Leaves, whole plant.

Cultivation: Wild.

Longitude: 76°27'59"E.

Latitude: 31°23'53"N.

Altitude: 560m.

HANMIRPUR (H.P.) INDIA