

Persicaria hydropiper L. Delarbre

Collection Site: Kunah Khad

DOC: 07-07-2021

Collector Name: Naveen Gautam

Accession No. : CPUH 10583

Common/Local Name (s): Water Pepper, Marsh Pepper, Knot Weed.

Family: Polygonaceae.

Botanical Description:

Annual herb, stem erect, occurs in watery areas like khad or rivers; leaves are green, alternate, without a stalk; leaves are ovate to lanceolate, narrow, margin entire; leaf base broad and tapering towards the tip; inflorescence is a nodding spike; nodes are prominent; flowers are tinny, greenish-pink; fruit is oval, dark brown; seeds are dark brown to black.

Flowering/ Fruiting: July-September.

Part Used: Leaves, stem, fruits.

Cultivation: Wild.

Longitude: 76°3694 E.

Latitude: 31°3828 N.

Altitude: 827m.

CAREER POINT

HAMIRPUR (H.P.) INDIA