

Piper longum L.

Collection Site: Pandher DOC: 05-04-2021

Collector Name: Naveen Gautam

Accession No. : CPUH 10585

Common/Local Name (s): Mug, Indian long pepper.

Family: Piperaceae.

Botanical Description:

It is slender, aromatic, climber, creeping stem, much branched, leaves are dark green, upper surface shiny, margin entire, ovate or heart-shaped, short petiole, flowers in erect spike, spike cylindrical, arise from axil of leaves, fruits are multiple, shining dark green, oval, black on ripening.

Flowering/ Fruiting:

Part Used: Fruit, root.

Cultivation: Wild.

Longitude: 76°36'13"E.

Latitude: 31°39'34"N.

Altitude: 877m.

Fig. 4.76 Economic potential of Piper longum in comparison to conventional crops