

Santalum album L.

Collection Site: Kandroun

DOC: 02-02-2020

Collector Name: Naveen Gautam

Accession No. : CPUH 10592

Common/Local Name (s): Chandan, Sandalwood, Anindita, Bhadrasara.

Family: Santalaceae.

Botanical Description:

Evergreen large tree, bark is reddish - brown to blackish, rough, vertical cracks, leaves are bright green, thin, ovate to elliptic margin entire, shiny, simple, opposite, petiole, flowers are reddish - purple, borne in axillary or terminal cyme, fruit is a drupe, blackish purple, globose, with single seed.

Flowering/ Fruiting: December-April.

Part Used: Fruits, leaves, bark.

Cultivation: Wild.

Longitude: 76.4535 E.

Latitude: 31.2316 N.

Altitude: 567m.

Fig. 4.83 Economic potential of Santalum album in comparison to conventional crops